

Prof. Xu Jialu Whole Person Education Award and Scholarship

The award was launched in the academic year 2008-09 to recognize UIC students who have proven excellence in whole person development. To give the award more prestige a scholarship was attached starting from the academic year 2010-11.

The award is eligible for all UIC full-time undergraduate students in Year 4 with normal academic status who fulfil the requirements below.

Award Requirements

- (1) The student's cGPA of Year 1 to Year 3 is no lower than 3.00
- (2) The student completed all required WPE Experiential Learning courses with grade S
- (3) The student completed all required Healthy Lifestyle courses, each course with a grade no lower than B
- (4) The student completed all test items of the Annual Physical Fitness Test in Year 1, Year 2 and Year 3 *
- (5) The student has participated in at least one WPE co-curricular activity , or has been an active member of a WPE related student club ***
- (6) The student has no record of regulations violation cases submitted to the Student Disciplinary Committee

*) Students who were approved for exemption from the Annual Physical Fitness Test in any year(s) are not required to have completed the test in that year(s).

) WPE co-curricular activities are: WPE summer and winter programs; WPE teams such as varsity sport teams, Yayue orchestra, environmental groups, or similar groups; services as teaching assistant for WPE courses or activities, or similar role. Not counted are: lectures or activities attended as an audience member only; activities that are a required part of WPE courses ) Active members are those who take up an important role in the leadership or management of the club, and the club is related to WPE in such areas as sports and outdoors, arts and culture, charity and volunteering, or environmental protection.

Application and Selection

The SGE Whole Person Education Centre (WPEC) invites student applications by email announcement in Semester 1 of each academic year. Eligible students can apply to WPEC by submitting their application within the given deadline.

Final student candidates are invited for selection interviews. Award winners are announced after the selection is completed. Award certificates are presented at the annual UIC Scholarship Presentation Ceremony.

Please note that WPEC will review the award scheme periodically, and if necessary adjust the award requirements, application or selection process.

Last update:
September 2024